

10159

damage scars

CHAPEL FARM LUTHERAN MON

Abrahamson Museum District

These sketches show the object from different perspectives. The top view shows a pointed, elongated shape with a textured surface. The side view shows a similar shape with a small circular feature near the top. The bottom view shows a small, oval-shaped object with a textured surface. The object appears to be a small, possibly decorative or functional item, possibly a piece of pottery or a small sculpture. The sketches are drawn on a grid background.